Privacy Policies for steampunkjellyfish.com

Version 1.0: 15.02.2024

Last Updated: 15.02.2024

This Privacy Policy outlines how Axelra Early Stage AG, operating steampunkjellyfish.com, handles personal data of our users and interested parties. We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting personal data in accordance with applicable laws.

1. Data Collection & Use

We collect personal data necessary for providing our NFT services, such as name, contact information, and transaction details, focusing on fulfilling contractual obligations, processing based on consent, and protecting legitimate interests.

2. Data Use Explanation

For each category of personal data collected, we detail its specific use, ensuring transparency and enhancing user understanding. For instance, contact information is used for transaction communications, while transaction details help in service improvement and compliance.

3. Sharing & Transfer

Data may be shared with service providers under strict confidentiality and for legal compliance, potentially involving transfers outside Switzerland, ensuring adherence to legal standards.

4. International Use and Laws

Users must ensure that their use of steampunkjellyfish.com complies with local laws and regulations of their jurisdiction. It is the responsibility of the user to ensure that their interaction with our service does not violate any applicable local or international laws, especially those concerning data protection and privacy.

5. International Data Transfers

When transferring data internationally, we apply safeguards such as standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission, ensuring protection levels that comply with EU data protection laws.

6. Retention & Security

Data is retained as required for service provision and legal compliance, with robust measures to protect against unauthorized access or misuse.

7. User Rights

Users have rights to access, correct, or delete their data, with provisions for withdrawing consent and lodging complaints with supervisory authorities.

8. Exercising User Right

Users wishing to exercise their rights can do so by contacting our Data Protection Officer via email at info@axelra.com, specifying the nature of their request.

9. Obligations & Profiling:

Providing personal data is essential for service use, and while we don't engage in automated decision-making, data processing helps tailor and improve our offerings.

10. Cookies & Amendments:

As our platform does not use cookies, user browsing data is not tracked via these means. Our Privacy Policy may be updated to reflect changes in practices or legal requirements, available on our website.

11. Data Controller

The data controller is Axelra AG, ensuring compliance with data privacy laws. Contact our Data Protection Officer at Hagenholzstrasse 83, 8050 Zurich, or info@axelra.com for inquiries.

12. Storage of Personal Data:

We process and store personal data as required for our contractual and statutory obligations. Data no longer needed is regularly deleted unless further processing is necessary for specific purposes.

13. Data Security:

Axelra implements rigorous technical and organizational measures to protect your data, including firewalls, encryption, access controls, and regular backups to prevent loss, misuse, or unauthorized alterations. For detailed inquiries or to exercise your privacy rights, contact info@axelra.com.

14. Policy Updates Notification:

Significant changes to our Privacy Policy will be communicated through email notifications to our users and/or a prominent notice on our website, ensuring you are always informed.

15. Regulation Compliance:

Our data handling practices are designed to be in compliance with major data protection regulations, including the GDPR, reflecting our commitment to protect user privacy across jurisdictions.
